Green-water navy is terminology created to describe a naval force that is designed to operate in its nation's littoral zones and has the competency to operate in the open oceans of its surrounding region. It is a relatively new term, and has been created to better distinguish, and add nuance, between two long-standing descriptors: blue-water navy and brown-water navy.

NOTE: This blog resumed on November 22 after a four-month break, in part due to the need to stand back from day-to-day events in Catalonia and the Spanish state and analyse the strategic debate within the movement for Catalan sovereignty (see here for article). From now on this blog will focus less on day-to-day news of the Catalan right to self-determination, which is more than adequately ...
